The National Library Week, organised by the Dr. Bhabendra Nath Saikia Library of Rangia Teacher Training College

On 14 November 2026, The National Library Week, organised by the Dr. Bhabendra Nath Saikia Library of Rangia Teacher Training College commenced on 14 November. In connection with this occasion, the college has also initiated a Book Donation Week programme. The programme aims to encourage the habit of reading among students and enrich the college library with books. It also seeks to inspire future teachers to develop a lifelong reading habit and contribute to the enrichment of knowledge through book donation.

The Book Donation Week programme was formally inaugurated by the President of the Governing Body of the college, Ramesh Das. During the programme, the Academic Advisor of the college, Dr. Partha Phukan Mahanta; Principal Dr. Mouchumi Dutta Khatoniar; and Vice-Principal Dr. Namita Haloi delivered their speeches.

Governing Body member Pabitra Kalita also donated books and addressed the gathering. Teachers, staff members and students of the college actively participated in the programme.

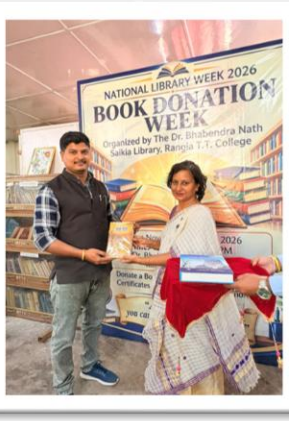

Among those who donated books were Principal Dr. Mouchumi Dutta Khatoniar, Assistant Professor Prabin Kumbang, Nilakshi Goswami, Madhab Kumar Nath, along with several other teachers, staff members and students.

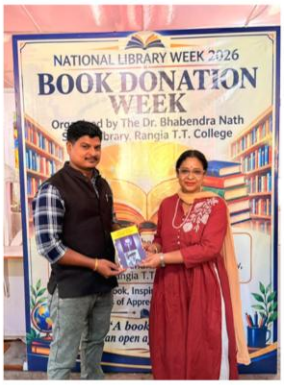

Certificates of appreciation were distributed to all the individuals who contributed books, as a mark of recognition and encouragement.

Book Donation Week Celebrated at Rangia T.T. College

The Assam Rising, Rangia, November 21 : In observance of National Library Week 2026, the Dr. Bhabendra Nath Saikia Library of Rangia Teachers' Training College is organising a Book Donation Week from November 14 to 20. Organised under the motto "Donate a Book, Illuminate the Life of a Future Teacher," the initiative aims to enrich the library's collection and promote a reading culture among students. The programme was inaugurated by Ramesh Das, president of the college governing body, who donated a book to the library. He was felicitated with a traditional Assamese gamosa and a certificate of appreciation on the occasion. Educational Adviser Dr. Partha Phukan Mahanta, Principal Mousumi Dutta Khataniar, Vice-Principal Dr. Namita Haloi and G.B. member Pabitra Kalita also addressed the gathering. Teachers, staff members and students enthusiastically participated in the initiative by donating books. Principal Mousumi Dutta Khataniar donated 'Prabandha Prabah', while Roji Biswakarma, a first-semester B.Ed. student, donated 'Sapiens'. Assistant Professor Prabin Kumbang contributed 'Advanced Philosophy of Education'. Nilakshi Goswami, Dharani Das, Madhab Kumar Nath and several others also donated books. Each donor was presented with a certificate of appreciation and given the opportunity to sign the college's 'Wall of Gratitude' as a mark of recognition. The programme was conceptualised and coordinated with the support of Niren Kalita and Girijananda Bhatta. College General Secretary Jayanta Pal, Pranab Kalita, Media Cell Secretary Debangi Das and Assistant Secretary Roji Biswakarma extended their cooperation in organising the initiative. The college authorities expressed hope that the initiative would not only strengthen the library's collection but also foster a sustainable reading habit and an environment of knowledge sharing among aspiring teachers.
